FOX SPORTS INDIANA ANNOUNCES 2009 CINCINNATI REDS TELECAST SCHEDULE

NETWORK WILL DELIVER 95 REDS GAMES TO BASEBALL FANS IN INDIANA

For the fourth consecutive year Fox Sports Indiana will televise Cincinnati Reds baseball, delivering 95 games to baseball fans in Indiana in 2009.

Fox Sports Indiana's coverage starts Opening Day, April 6, when the Reds host the New York Mets in the tradition-laden opener at Great America Ballpark. Cincinnati, the Major League team in closest proximity to Indianapolis and many other parts of Indiana, will play 10 games on Fox Sports Indiana against the division rival Chicago Cubs and 12 versus the St. Louis Cardinals. The Fox Sports Indiana schedule also includes five games with in-state foe Cleveland and three interleague contests against the Chicago White Sox. The complete Reds on Fox Sports Indiana telecast schedule is attached.

Reds telecasts on Fox Sports Indiana are produced by Fox Sports Ohio. Entering their 17th consecutive season, the Reds long-running TV duo of George Grande and Chris Welsh will call the action. Also back in the TV booth for their third season is Thom Brennaman and former Reds pitcher Jeff Brantley.

Fox Sports Indiana, a regional sports television network, reaches more than 1.2 million cable and satellite homes and telecasts more than 200 regional events annually including Indiana Pacers basketball, Indiana Fever basketball, Cincinnati Reds baseball and Missouri Valley Conference athletics. Nationally, FSN's 16 owned-and-operated regional networks and its affiliated networks reach more than 80 million homes across the U.S. FSN serves as the TV home to nearly two-thirds of all MLB, NHL and NBA teams based in the United States.
